

Wiess College Resident Associate Application

Please fill out the top portion and answer the following application questions. If multiple adults will be living in the RA suite please complete this application together. Please include a reasonably-sized photo with your application.

The full application should be emailed to wiessmasters@rice.edu before 5 P.M. on April 30th.

A Resident Associate typically serves three to seven years. Living among the students, he or she is in the unique position to be a positive community facilitator, role model, and to provide guidance and leadership to college members. The RA therefore must be a visible participant in college life, accessible to students, and willing to stand in for the masters, when appropriate. Through this application, we hope you will express both who you are currently and who you might be as an RA.
